*“Danielle Morgan delivers her music with passion and an effortless vocal range “
(Get Ready To Rock!)*

Danielle began honing her skills at a young age, and it was her path to enter the world famous BRIT School in London and leave as one of the original graduates. Now, having composed over 50 original songs and works with co-writer John Merrigan, and with highly credited Los Angeles Producer, TheRealJonSmith (Luna Halo, 4-time Grammy winner Kevin Max, etc).

Recorded at London's Abbey Road Studios, Danielle released her acclaimed debut EP, 'The Session' in June 2016 to critical acclaim, with featured track, 'No Trace Of You' gaining extensive airplay. Clearly, Danielle and the band thoroughly enjoyed the experience: “Working with the band and Jon Smith brought boundless energy to find the big sound to evolve our style and vision for the music. It all came together so easily in Abbey Road.”

Danielle's compositions are diverse in topic & eclectic in mood. She writes about her life experiences that everyone can relate to and interpret for themselves. Her vocals are compelling, uniquely her own. On stage, vocalist/pianist Danielle (who sang in a gospel choir) is at her natural best; passionate and powerful in full flight.

Says Danielle of her live performances: “Be ready for a spontaneous, fun and emotional evening of great original music, with a fantastic band. It's honest, heart-felt music that will take you on an emotional roller-coaster and leave you wanting more. No two shows are the same, so it's guaranteed to be exciting and edgy!”
